final acceptance of the tender will rest solely with the District Superintendent of Police and there will be no binding of whatever kind on him.

4. The name of the successful tenderer will be communicated to the party concerned who shall within three days of the communication, appear before the District Superintendent of Police and execute an agreement for the due fulfilment of the contract.

5. The successful tenderer should deposit an amount equal to the cost of the cloth entrusted to him for stitching.

6. The work should be completed and handed over in a tidy and satisfactory condition, within the prescribed time to the District Superintendent of Police or any other officer authorised by him.

7. After the work is completed and taken charge of, the making charges will be claimed and submitted to the Inspector-General of Police and Home Guards in Mysore, Bangalore, for sanction and arranging payments of the bills. The amount held as security will be returned to the tenderer, after the entire work is completed and returned satisfactorily.

8. Any person misappropriating the cloth will not only entail the forfeiture of the money deposited by him as security but will also be liable for legal action against him.

9. The uniform has got to be stitched for about 450 Home Guards of this District. It will consist of one khaki bush coat with full sleeves and khaki pant of the prescribed pattern (sample suit available for inspection at the District Police Office) according to the measurement of individual Home Guards.

M. JAISINGH,
District Superintendent of Police.
